Related Standard Practice Guides:

NEW & CHANGE APPOINTMENT:

- In accordance with SPG 201.65-0, Employment Outside the University, University employees may be employed outside of the University, but the outside employment must not detract from the performance of the duties and responsibilities of the University position, nor may it create a conflict of interest.

- In accordance with SPG 201.35, Non-Discrimination, the University, in its employment and human resource policies and practices, will not discriminate against any individual because of race, color, religion, creed, national origin or ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientations, gender identity, gender expression, disability, special disabled veteran and Vietnam-era veteran status, and height or weight, except as allowed by the need for bona fide occupational qualifications. Reasonable accommodation will also be provided to persons with disabilities, to disabled veterans, and to accommodate religious practices.

- In accordance with SPG 201.46, Personnel Records - Collection, Retention and Release, the collection, availability and disclosure of the contents of personnel files is governed by regulations established by the University and applicable laws. The Faculty and Staff Records Office, the Medical Center Staff Records Office and the custodian of personnel files or records in various departments, schools, colleges or other University offices are subject to these regulations.

- Refer to SPG 604.1, Department Record Retention For Business and Financial Records, to determine the proper record retention period relating to the job posting process.

- In accordance with SPG 201.53, Security Clearance, The University may require a security clearance of its staff members, as a condition of employment in certain positions. Such clearance may be necessary for incumbents or applicants for employment, if their work requires access to information classified by the Federal Government. The determination of need for security clearance for specific positions or projects will be mutually determined by the University and the responsible Government Agency.

- To ensure the proper internal controls are in place when paying faculty, staff and independent contractors, please refer to SPG 518.1, Payroll Controls.

- In accordance with SPG 201.43, Probationary Period, during the initial six months of regular employment, employees are considered probationary. There is no obligation to continue employment through the probationary period.

- In accordance with SPG 201.23, Appointment of Relatives or Others with Close Personal or External Business Relationships; Procedures to Assure Equal Opportunity and to Avoid the Possibility Of Favoritism (Nepotism), the basic criteria for appointment and promotion of all University staff shall be appropriate qualifications and performance. Relationship to another individual employed by the University shall constitute neither an advantage nor a deterrent to appointment by the University, provided the individual meets and fulfills the appropriate University appointment standards.

ADDITIONAL PAY:

- In accordance with SPG 201.65-0, Work Outside the University, University employees may be employed outside of the University, but the outside employment must not detract from the performance of the duties and responsibilities of the University position, nor may it create a conflict of interest.
