American Messaging refurbishes the plastic holsters for our pagers so they can be used again and again.

If a pager or holster is determined to be damaged beyond repair, American Messaging dispenses the parts and plastics to third party companies who utilize the working parts in pager repairs.

Any remaining parts are sent to recyclers.